EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

First of the Series of Musicals Given at the White House Last Evening.

Luncheons, Dinners and Dances of Yesterday—Recent Events.

At Homes—Notes.

The President and Mrs. Wilson entertained last night at the first of a series of musicals which they are giving at the White House this month.

The guests numbered about 500 and included several ambassadors and ministers, members of the cabinet and others from official and resident society.

President and Mrs. Wilson received in the green room, the guests passing from there into the east room, where the program was given.

Mme. Julia Culp, soprano, and Mr. Enrique Granados, pianist, were the artists of the evening. Mme. Culp gave a delightful program of songs, which included a group of Schubert.

Mr. Granados played several of his own compositions and selections from Chopin and Scarlatti.

The east room was decorated with American beauty roses and the state dining room, where a buffet supper was served at the conclusion of the program, was adorned with spring flowers and ferns.

Mrs. Wilson wore a beautiful gown of rose color chiffon over satin of the same shade, with a girdle of embossed silver cloth and a corsage bouquet of orchids.

Miss Margaret Wilson wore white tulle over white satin and Miss Helen Woodrow Bones was in white lace with an overdress of blue satin.

Mr. S. Constantini of the Greek legation attended the mardi gras carnival ball in Baltimore last night.

Mr. John Barrett, who is the guest of the Governor of Rhode Island and Mrs. R. Livingston Beekman of Providence will be the honor guest at a dinner which they are giving this evening.
